

people, entrepreneurs, and others from having an opportunity to own media. It will certainly lessen the diversity of thought, shaping the opinions, and will certainly almost completely devastate community values and community controls.

I daresay that certainly what is happening on the national stage and international stage is important, but is it not important knowing what happened to a parent's Little League son and how he performed, or what is happening in the board of education?

I urge Members to join with me in sponsoring a bill that will overturn this FCC ruling, the Byrd-Dingell bill.

EXPRESSING SUPPORT FOR THE AMERICAN FLAG

Mr. BURNS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my support for the American flag. For more than 200 years, the American flag has been the symbol of our Nation's strength and unity. It has been a source of pride and inspiration for millions of citizens. It has been a prominent icon in our national history.

To the colonists, it represents the free country for which they fought. For the Jewish people in World War II, it simply symbolized survival. For African Americans, they view the flag as the promise of a time when all men will be treated equally. Now it symbolizes a new day in Iraq.

So many brave men and women sacrificed their lives to protect the principles for which it stands, a flag that embodies justice, democracy and, most of all, freedom. The American flag deserves to fly proudly throughout America.

FCC MEDIA OWNERSHIP DECISION

(Ms. LORETTA SANCHEZ of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. LORETTA SANCHEZ of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to voice my concerns over the FCC's decision to relax media ownership rules. The new regulations would allow a single company to own 45 percent of media that reaches United States households, instead of the current 35 percent.

As it stands now, there are only a handful of media companies that we get to see, that we see, that we hear, and that we can read. When we do this, there will be an even smaller number of media companies owning a larger share of the media market.

And that moves us dangerously close to a monopoly-like situation in the mass media business. One of the greatest things about our country is freedom of press and freedom of speech. That is what our Constitution has in it. Under these new regulations, we are moving toward limiting the information that citizens get to see because there will be fewer points of view brought forward because there are fewer companies. Congress should take a closer look at this.

DO NOT LEAVE CHILDREN AND VETERANS BEHIND

(Mr. STRICKLAND asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. STRICKLAND. Mr. Speaker, this Congress has passed and the President has signed into law a tax cut that takes care of the millionaires but leaves many of our children and our veterans behind. Right today, young Americans are serving this Nation in Iraq with young children waiting for them here at home. And ironically, many of those children will not receive any benefit from the child tax credit that was contained in that tax bill.

Think of that. Young Americans fighting for this country and their children are going to be left out of the benefit. Not only children, but veterans are getting the shaft. It is shameful, it is shameful that we would drive this country into debt, take care of our millionaires, and leave our children and our veterans behind. It is time for the people of this country, Mr. Speaker, to wake up and realize what is happening.

CLOWN CAR TAX POLICY

(Mr. McDERMOTT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. McDERMOTT. Mr. Speaker, the Leave No Child Behind President recently signed into law the third largest tax cut in history. But the tax bill was really like one of those clown cars you see at the circus. Because of the budget gimmicks, the Republicans squeezed nearly a trillion dollars in tax cuts into something that only looked big enough to hold $350 billion.

The whole tax bill was a big masquerade and the Congress participated in the party. While pressing for these tax cuts, President Bush declared, My jobs and growth plan will reduce tax rates for everyone. Everyone, I emphasize, who pays income tax. That is wrong.

In fact, 8.1 million lower- and middle-class Americans who paid billions of dollars in income tax will receive no tax reduction whatsoever; 36 percent of American households, 50 million households, in the United States will receive no benefit whatsoever.

Now, if I wonder where the next clown will pop up, maybe it will be in the White House.

TAX BILL ROBS MILITARY FAMILIES

(Mr. FILNER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FILNER. Mr. Speaker, there they go again. When the Republicans are faced with a choice of helping millionaires with tax credits or giving low-income people some help they need with the same tax credits, they choose the millionaires every time.

Once again, the President, and the President's bill, and the Republicans have robbed millions of low-income families of the child tax credit that has long been part of the bill. What some might not realize is that a large number of low-income military families, that is right, military families, will be affected by this change. These are men and women who have been serving overseas, enduring economic hardship in order to protect our country. But by this shameful act of the majority that we should address immediately, they will not be able to get the same tax benefit that a millionaire will get.

It is offensive to say, it is offensive to say to the people of this Nation that we can afford to give huge tax credits to millionaires, but cannot come up with a few hundred dollars to help low-income military families who have sacrificed so much and need this money the most. I hope the sanity of this House will restore those tax credits.

ABSTINENCE EDUCATION

(Mr. WELDON of Florida asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. WELDON of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to remind my colleagues of the devastating effect of sexual activity on our Nation's youth.

Just today the Heritage Foundation released a new report entitled "Sexually Active Teenagers Are More Likely to Be Depressed And to Attempt Suicide." In this study, Robert Rector, Kirk Johnson, and Lauren Noyes outlined the psychological and emotional aspects associated with teenage sexual activity.

The data shows that there is a real correlation between teen sexual activity and depression and even between sexual activity and suicide in the ages of 14 through 17. Sexually active teenage girls are three times more likely to be depressed than their classmates who are abstinent. Sexually active boys in their teens are more than twice as likely to be depressed. Furthermore, 14 percent of sexually active teenage girls report having attempted suicide, a three-fold increase over their peers who are abstinent.

This report demonstrates the value of abstinence education.

TAX CUT LEAVES MANY FAMILIES OUT IN THE COLD

(Ms. SOLIS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)
